

Sage Pastel LegalWrite

sage

Your lawyer in a box.

Legal issues affect the daily operations of businesses. Not everyone however has a degree in law and, it can end up costing you a pretty penny. With that in mind, we've developed a software package that helps to simplify legal matters by providing you with tools and guidance you need to do it yourself.

Developed in conjunction with leading attorneys, our software provides customisable legal documents and templates as well as information guides encompassing the key areas of South African law. With our LegalWrite software, you can access professional and legally binding documents which boast the look and feel of a lawyer's touch, just at a fraction of the cost.

Our extensive range of 100 editable, standard legal documents and precedents cover the following key areas of law:

- Commercial
- General
- Labour
- Matrimonial
- Monetary
- Property
- Testamentary

Our software also provides you with comprehensive legal information sections, in simple English, so you can get to grips with how the law affects your business.

We provide you with basic guides on the following:

- Legal glossary
- The new Companies Act
- The Consumer Protection Act
- Labour Law
- An introduction to Tax
- Black Economic Empowerment

Disclaimer:

Some of the clauses contained in the various documents may not be applicable to certain circumstances, whilst in other instances, you may require clauses which are not present in the documents. Great care should be exercised in using any of the documents comprising this package. No liability shall attach to the distributors of this package, the authors of the documents, nor to any person connected herewith in the event of you incurring any liability of any nature whatsoever in using any of the documents contained herein. If you are in the slightest doubt about whether to include or exclude a particular word or phrase, or as to which document contained best suits your circumstances, please consult your attorney or a professional advisor.

Please note: When registering your LegalWrite software, you will be required to provide your personal details for customer records.